

University of Rochester Offsite Electrical Safety Quiz

Name: _____ Date: _____

- True False 1. The human body is a better conductor of electricity than a ground wire.
- True False 2. Dry skin is a better conductor of electricity than wet skin.
- True False 3. All electrical panels need to be labeled with maximum voltage.
- True False 4. Extension cords may be used as a permanent means of wiring.
- True False 5. If a cord's plug is loose or damaged, you should tape it together.
- True False 6. GFI outlets detect leaking electrical currents.
- True False 7. All electrical circuits must be treated as live until proven otherwise.
- True False 8. Specialized personal protective equipment is often required to perform electrical work.
- True False 9. Anyone can perform a lockout/tagout on electrified equipment if they are careful.
- True False 10. Authorized users have specific training allowing them to perform lockout/tagout procedures.