University of Rochester Offsite Hazard Communication Quiz

Name: _______________________________ Date: __________

True  False  1. All chemical containers must be labeled.

True  False  2. Material Safety Data Sheets provide information on the handling and storage of potentially hazardous materials.

True  False  3. Acute health hazards occur gradually over periods of time.

True  False  4. The four ways chemicals can enter your body are ingestion, absorption, injection, and inhalation.

True  False  5. Always wash your hands after using chemicals.

True  False  6. The best time to look up information on a chemical is after you have spilled it.

True  False  7. One way to protect yourself from chemical exposures is to use as little chemical as possible for a job.

True  False  8. It is okay to pour chemical waste down the drain if you run water with it for 15 minutes.

True  False  9. Examples of chemicals with physical hazards include corrosives, flammables, and reactives.

True  False  10. Your supervisor must provide you with specific training about the chemicals in your workplace before you use them.

Supervisor: A passing score for this quiz is 8 out of 10.