Get proactive about winter walking safety – Check your tread!

Just like the tread on your tires, the tread on your winter walking boots wears down over time. When your tread is worn down, you slip and slide – just like you would if you were driving on bald tires. So get your boots out and check your tread! If you’ve got “bald boots”, start shopping for rubber soles and non-slip tread!

Stop Winter Falls. Walk Like A Penguin.